

I would think in this day and age that the ability to provide traffic and weather information would not be opposed by any entity. If the NAB members are worried about loss of listeners they have the ability to compete fairly rather than try to prohibit another enterprise from providing the service.